ONE OF THE BOYS FROM WINSTON'S LITTLE ISLAND

Major R. Bacon, in a letter to the Minister of Food, said that he was a thoroughly unreliable witness, a witness whose word should not be accepted unless it is corroborated up to the hilt.

He is an approved officer, a disaffected officer, and certainly a witness whose word should not be accepted unless it is corroborated up to the hilt.

With regard to the two charges arising out of the Dixon incident, Lieut. Halls said there was in fact no evidence that Dixon was beaten. The two men who were supposed to have beaten him were charged before a court martial and found not guilty.

"A NIGHTMARE" The Deputy Judge Advocate, Major R. Bacon, in a letter to the Minister of Food, said that he was a thoroughly unreliable witness, a witness whose word should not be accepted unless it is corroborated up to the hilt.

£200,000,000 For Subsidies BRAINS TRUST TO KEEP PRICES LOW

BY OUR POLITICAL CORRESPONDENT
A "BRAINS TRUST" OF COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL EXPERTS HAS BEEN GATHERED TOGETHER BY THE CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER, THE MINISTER OF FOOD AND THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT.

Its task is to advise the Minister how to spend £200,000,000 which is to be used to keep prices from rising during the next year.

The money will be paid out in subsidies.

Ten million pounds is to be paid out in a year to keep the price of potatoes at their present level.

The Minister of Food has decided that 1,000,000 acres of potatoes—a record crop—must be grown in the coming year.

He wants them not only for eating as vegetables, but for the production of flour, in case imports of flour and wheat are cut.

He wants them also for the preparation of concentrated food products, both for animals and human beings.

Subsidies to keep down the price of meat, bacon, bread and other staple foodstuffs are already being paid and are to be increased.

That for sugar beet will be bigger this year than ever before. As a result, nearly one-half of our sugar will be produced from home-grown beet.

Railway charges are also to be subsidised to the extent of some millions of pounds a year. There is to be no charge for any travelling to work.

But, so that the people will not have to spend any more on travelling to work, so that the prices of food and materials carried by rail will not have to be kept up because of higher freight charges.

Gas and electricity and coal prices are to be kept down to approximately their present level in the new year.

Since subsidies were introduced in the April Budget, the cost of living index has kept practically at a standstill.

It is now 99 points above 1914, as compared with 100 points during Budget week.

ITALIANS FLY GERMAN PLANES

It was revealed in London yesterday that among the prisoners captured in the Western Desert, in Western Sahara, were 875 German heavy tank and 47 Italian light tanks.

Eighteen of the 875 were brought down. We also captured 10 German heavy tanks and 47 Italian light tanks.

It is noted that although the planes brought down are those usually used by the Germans on the Italian front, the aircraft were Italian.

Torpedoed M.P. Died For His Country

"The late member for the Wrekin was a victim of the pirates of the Atlantic in peculiarly dastardly circumstances. As such as a man who has died in the fighting line, he gave his life for his country and his name is honoured," says Mr. Winston Churchill, writing to Mr. Arthur Colegate, the National Conservative candidate in the Wrekin.

Colonel John H. Webb, the late Conservative Member, died when the evacuee liner City of Berlin was torpedoed.

The Prime Minister continues: "The late member for the Wrekin was a victim of the pirates of the Atlantic in peculiarly dastardly circumstances. Homes "Bombarded" After Dark

YEAR'S CATAPULT TERROR ENDS

FOR THE LAST TWELVE MONTHS THERE HAS BEEN AN INTERMITTENT BOMBARDMENT OF WINDOWS AT THE BACKS OF HOUSES.

RESIDENTS HAVE HAD TO GO TO THE FRONTS OF THEIR HOUSES AFTER DARK TO ESCAPE THE PEBBLES, IRON NUTS AND MARBLES WHICH CRASH THROUGH THE WINDOWS AND FALL ON BEDS.

Night after night police officers had been hunting for the source of the attack, and it was only when Inspector Owen McCabe threw a portable searchlight on the scene that the attacker was discovered in the garden with a powerful catapult in his hand.

Aid To Soviet Eases Our Task

WE MUST FACE THE GRIM FACT THAT BEFORE LONG WE SHALL BE ENGAGED IN A STRUGGLE WITH THE ENEMY.

Mr. C. Churchill, M.P., gave this warning at Hanley yesterday.

People of this country must not expect Russia to do the war for us, he said. But assistance to Russia can make our task easier.

We must give aid speedily and in full measure.
